Press Release

Uganda's #1 Gospel Singer, Jackie Senyonjo, set to perform at Uganda's Independence Day Fellowship in Philadelphia.

Prize offered for the most unique, original Ugandan and/or African attire!

Philadelphia PA: October 9, 2011: Ugandans in Covenant (U.I.C), a cultural fellowship spanning over 15 years will host Jackie Senyonjo, Uganda's #1 Gospel Singer on October 9, 2011 at New Covenant Church (Founders Hall), 7500 Germantown Ave, Philadelphia, Pa, 19119. "This is a fellowship of believers" says Paul Senkungu, President/Chairman of U.I.C. "We come together for prayer and unity, as well as to empower and educate the community on Ugandan culture, via forums, attire and song". "I am proud to be a part of this fellowship of wonderful Africans who I so easily identify with and feel a part of" says Lisa "Sanyu" Parks, Founder of Joy of God Ministries Intl. "I have a tremendous love for the country, I invite everyone (Ugandans & those who love Uganda) to join us on every 2nd Sunday of the month @ 3pm."

Lisa "Sanyu" Parks & Joy of God Ministries will sponsor next month's event. For more information on JOGM please visit <http://techbookonline.com/joyofgodministries.html>
