Press Release

The Great Debate feat Dr. Cornel West is postponed!

Philadelphia Pa, October 20, 2011: The highly anticipated event featuring “The Great Debate” between Dr. Cornel West & Temple Universities’ Dr. Molefi Asante has been postponed until further notice. “Due to scheduling conflicts on behalf of Dr. West we will postpone the event until further notice” says Cecil Hankins, Founder of The Ark of Philadelphia®, a nonprofit organization who was sponsoring the event. “We will be working with all the participants to establish another date in the near future and will alert the media of our progress; we look forward to bringing this event and more to the resident of Philadelphia”.

The Ark of Philadelphia® is a non-profit organization that’s committed to leveraging resources for residents in need of behavioral health and/or intellectual disability services.
