Press Release

Philadelphia to host “Royalty” in celebration of Black & Women’s History

LIVE PERFORMANCES BY THE QUEENS (QIT’s) –Sponsored by JOGM Intl –FREE EVENT 3/11/12

2.21.2012: Global News – (Culture/Live Event): Joy of God Ministries Intl, a faith based organization that specializes in spiritual and economic development in 3rd world countries--with strong focus in Uganda, has announced they will co-sponsor Uganda’s “Black & Women’s History” Fellowship on Sunday March 11th 2012 @ 3pm at the New Covenant Church (Founder’s Hall), 7500 Germantown Ave, Philadelphia, Pa. 19119. This event is open to the public and will feature free food, vendors and special appearances by Q.U.E.E.N.S® and performances by Q.I.T.

Q.U.E.E.N.S® (Queens United to Elevate & Empower the Next Sister) , an initiative of the Philadelphia Prevention Partnership’s Institute for African American Mobilization (IAAM), was founded in 2004 by Queen Evelyn Doughty. In 2007, the organization launched Q.I.T. (Queens in Training) in order to provide mentorship and support to school age girls facing a variety of social challenges throughout the City of Philadelphia. Q.I.T*, in their first performance in front of a global audience, will provide entertainment in the form of song, dance and skits.
